

In Celebration of Disneyland's
Original Date Nite
Be Our Guest is
Proud to announce
Guest of Honor
Rubén Procopio

Rubén Procopio is a credited animation artist on over a dozen Disney feature films, including The Little Mermaid, Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin and The Lion King. He has contributed his many creative and management talents to more than 25 animated projects, and is known for restoring the maquette sculpting process to modern Disney animation. His Ursula maquette from The Little Mermaid appears in the Smithsonian Museum.

Rubén was also a key contributor to the award winning Walt Disney Classics Collection, bringing beloved Disney characters to life through gallery quality three dimensional porcelain sculptures. His works include characters from The Incredibles, Fantasia and The Pirates of the Caribbean.

In 2003 Rubén founded Masked Avenger Studios, reflecting his lifelong love for the masked heroes of yesteryear and providing comics, animation, sculpting, design and illustration services to a wide range of clients.

He is currently an animator and storyboard artist at Warner Animation Group. Some of his film projects at WB Animation feature Tom & Jerry, Scooby Doo, the LEGO characters and Batman '66. Ruben resides in longtime hometown Burbank, CA with his wife Jeanne, their horse Loxley and puppy Gentle Ben.
